

INTERESTING LOCAL NEWS ITEMS

Katherine Mosto, 1479 W. Superior st., injured by auto No. 39610, Ill., at Madison and LaSalle sts. Occupants fled car. Auto belongs to Louis Ruben, 1316 W. Van Buren st.

Chicago and Oak Park "L" has accepted through-route ordinance passed by council July 28. Filed order with U. S. District Court.

John W. Rodgers, real estate broker, who was overcome by gas Thursday, is dying.

Thirteen of forty picknickers, who were arrested in Oak Park last week, have decided to plead guilty to disorderly conduct.

Mrs. W. Gibson and Mrs. A. C. Campbell, 318 E. 56th st., struck by auto truck at Wabas hand Adams st.

Stephen D. Griffin, 12th ward Democrat, will be chosen chief clerk of Board of Review. Frank A. Vogler just resigned.

Mayor Harrison revoked license of Oscar Elser, 2816 N. Clark st. Women in place.

Mrs. Anna Bier, 5405 Shields av., died at German Deaconess Hospital for self-performed operation.

Black Book, key to underworld gang of Chinese crooks, found in room of George Norn, wanted in Sling murder, at 511 N. Clark st.

Mrs. Marie Russak, Mrs. Annie Besant's representative to Theosophical Society Convention warned members against talking to reporters.

Judge Kohlsaat ordered city ordinance providing for through routing of all elevated lines to be carried out.

Frank Alt, painter, 1709 Winona st., fell 45 feet from scaffold. Arm and leg broken.

Robert Hossman, alleged auto thief, caught after long down-town chase.

Chas. Erickson, Mullen, Idaho, met two nice young men in Grant Park. They got away with $145.

John Naghten, Jr., arrested for taking check, allowed to go home in custody of father.

Atty. Dan Donahue, indicted with Isaac Stiefel and Aileen Heppner for conspiracy to defame Clarence S. Funk, applied for separate trial.

John Yokuboewsky, 1334 14th pl., robbed of $100 by poker game companion in Iowa Hotel.

Sergt. Patrolman Kelliher, Maxwell st. station, promoted to lieutenant and 22 patrolmen appointed sergeants today.

Miss Mary Southwick, 62, found dead in home of sister, Mrs. Helen Herman, 1041 Fullerton av. Poison. Believed suicide.

Mrs. Ella Jansen, 1432 N. Washtenaw av., fell from ladder. Knocked gas jet off. Overcome and died.

Auto No. 4685, containing two women and three men, nearly plunged into river when State street bridge began to turn. License issued to Consumers' Co.

Two 14-year-old boys arrested for stealing peddler's horse and wagon. Desplains st. station. Wanted good time.

Andrew Fakovitch, 24 S. Canal st., accidentally shot himself below heart.

G. A. Wilson, 329 N. Clark st., nearly ran into river at Dearborn st. bridge. Avoided it by running into post. Arrested.

John Naghton, 17, son of president of Western Worsted Mills, arrested on charge of cashing $50 checks belonging to W. A. Merriwether, Clarks-ville, Tenn.

Clarence Chalmers, 11, 7530 S. Peoria st., injured by auto driven by C. J. Butler, 247 Swan st.

Andrew Formakie, 11, 620 S. Halsted st., hit by car. Saved by fender.

John Brink, 7, 5957 S. Halsted st., injured by auto owned by M. G. Mid-daugh, 7629 S. Morgan st.

Margaret Donaghue, 14, 318 N. Artesian av., disappeared last night. Mother fears kidnappers.

Erich von Goldschmidt-Rothschild, one of the younger of powerful money family of Europe, is in Chi-